Wine and Dine at Twickenham

Twickenham is perhaps the most famous rugby ground in the world.

Every rugby player aims to play at Twickenham and every supporter wants to witness the most important matches at this historic stadium.

Now you can see the world's most skilful rugby players at Twickenham and wine and dine in our nearby luxurious hospitality marquees.

Miss the crowds and park by the marquee in time for the Champagne reception. Savour the special 5-course luncheon and after-match rolls and soup. Leave when all the traffic has subsided.

Your Twickenham Day

Arrive at 11 o'clock before the crowds converge. Slip into your reserved car parking space and listen to the corks popping as you enter your nearby marquee. The Champagne is flowing and the pre-match discussions have already begun.

Lunch is served! 5 lavish courses with fine wine. How about some Home Made Game Soup with Sherry after your Oak Smoked Trout. Would you like us to serve your English Duckling with Honey and Chestnut Sauce now, Sir? Savour the delicious Meringue Shells with Whipped Cream and Strawberries. Port or Cognac with your Cheese?

A short stroll to that unique ground. Don't forget your programme. Experience the electric atmosphere as you take up your reserved seat in the Grandstand. Hear the roar as the teams walk out onto the pitch. Feel the tension as the referee signals the kick-off.

As half-time approaches, you can look forward to your special 'Twickenham Warmer'.

After all the excitement, back to the marquee where the complimentary bar is still open. Hot Sausage Rolls, Soup and Coffee are served as the after-match analysis begins.

Exclusive marquee facilities are available for groups of 30 or more.

Wales v England and Cardiff Castle

16th February is one of the most important dates in the rugby calendar. On this Saturday, Wales play England at Cardiff Arms Park.

To befit the occasion, a special luncheon has been arranged at Cardiff Castle.

Your week-end starts at 6 o'clock on the Friday when you check into the highly rated Inn on the Avenue Hotel in Cardiff. At 7.30pm you are invited for pre-dinner drinks. You will be rubbing shoulders with many International Celebrities.

The Gala Dinner starts at 8pm. You will be served with 4 excellent courses with wines and liqueurs. The dinner will be stag and the dress black tie. Look forward to 4 famous after-dinner speakers from the world of Rugby Union.

After bed and breakfast, the coach will be waiting at 10.30am to take you to Cardiff Castle. Time to have some coffee and biscuits before the complimentary bar opens.

Please take your seats for lunch! 4 sumptuous courses with wines, Port or Brandy.

Just a short walk to Arms Park before you are sitting in your reserved seat. After the match you are invited for Hot Dogs and Soup back at the Castle before returning to the hotel.

The price per person is £395.
